General

1. A German group composed of 22 male technicians, 17 with wives and families, and one female secretary (including myself) was deported from various locations in Germany in October 1946 to Plant 456, Khimki, and was returned to Germany in September 1950. During this time our group remained intact with no new arrivals or departures with the exception of one man who married (REINHARDT) and one man who committed suicide in 1950 (WINSKOWSKI) [see below].
